

BEHIND PROTEST AT ART INSTITUTE

A BJP vs BJP tussle for control at MS University

BJP's Hasmukh Vaghela, who is a member of the university's highest body, led the demonstrators

VADODARA, MAY 8

EXACTLY 15 years after one of its students was arrested for allegedly "hurting religious sentiments" through two of his paintings, a mob gathered outside the Faculty of Fine Arts of MS University (MSU) in Vadodara on May 5 to disrupt jury evaluation of final-year students' artworks. BJP leader Hasmukh Vaghela who is a member of the MSU Syndicate, the university's highest body, led the protest. This demonstration, party insiders said, was the result of a factional feud in the BJP for the control of the Syndicate.

Vaghela was elected to the Syndicate for the first time in February 2021 from the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS)-backed group Sankalan Samiti. The 38-year-old is also a part of the BJP city unit, a two-time member of the institution's Senate, and an alumnus of the university's pharmacy department. On Thursday, he attempted to barge into the evaluation hall to "scrutinise objectionable artworks" that "disrespect gods and goddesses". The protest was triggered after photos of the allegedly objectionable artworks went viral on social media.

During the demonstration, the BJP leader was accompanied by advocate Niraj Jain of the Hindu Jagran Manch, Jain, a former Vishwa Hindu Parishad (VHP) leader, was the complainant in the 2007 case in which Fine Arts student Chandramohan was arrested. As the right-wing protesters raised slogans and warned students of the "consequences of disrespecting religious sentiments", a group of students stood between them and the jury hall. Jain and Vaghela got into a verbal spat with the department's teachers and demanded that they be allowed to enter the hall to "check the obscene artworks".

But the Faculty of Fine Arts teachers did not relent and told the two that the artworks in the social media photos were not part of the evaluation. Threatening the faculty members, Vaghela said, "This faculty has a record of indulging in such blasphemous activities related to religion. History is testimony to their anti-Hindu mindset that reflects in their annual exhibitions and actions time and again. We will not tolerate this. We will complain to the Education Minister to initiate strict action." Jain contended that the department violated a resolution adopted after the Chandramohan incident. According to the lawyer, the resolution stated that a committee of experts would scrutinise artworks being considered for exhibition to remove those that "cause provocation or hurt sentiments".

Fact-finding committee

As a result of the fracas, the university set up a nine-member fact-finding committee to probe

12 of the 15 elected members of the Syndicate are from Team MSU (nine of them won uncontested) while Sankalan Samiti has three members — Vaghela, who won uncontested, and two others elected from the teachers' category. The Faculty of Fine Arts' current representative in the Senate is Samiti member Bipin Patel. His wife Ambika is a professor in the Faculty and part of the fact-finding panel.

A senior BJP functionary who backs Team MSU said, "It is a fact that on the MSU campus, Sankalan Samiti, comprising primary members of the BJP and backed by the RSS, is trying to gain more control over the seats. The current controversy at the Faculty of Fine Arts stands to benefit the Samiti since Dean Jayaram Poduval is from Team MSU. The Sankalan Samiti has been eyeing the post to prop up one of their top contenders for the position, which will automatically get them a seat in the Senate. By default, all deans of faculties are Senate members. So, if Poduval vacates his office, Team MSU will also lose one seat in the Senate. For the Syndicate elections, held every three years, only Senate members can vote. At the moment, Team MSU benefits in the Syndicate directly because of the majority it enjoys in the Senate." The BJP leader said no one supports "disrespect of religion" through artworks but it had yet to be proven if the pieces of art that the mob was protesting against were part of the submissions. "No one will like it if art is used to hurt religious sentiments. Then, the exhibition had not opened and the allegations were made during a closed-door evaluation process... The fact-finding committee will submit its report but one cannot deny that this controversy could have been avoided by waiting for the public show to begin. In case of any other objectionable, one could have raised it through an appropriate complaint. At least, one can expect that much restraint from a Syndicate member."

Vaghela is no stranger to controversies. After being elected to the Syndicate, he made allegations of irregularities in the appointments of the university's teaching and non-teaching staff and made representations to Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel and Education Minister Jitu Vaghani. In 2018, he stirred up an uproar at the Senate's annual meeting by demanding the suspension of two students from the Institute of Leadership and Governance for meeting former JNU student leader Kanhaiya Kumar. "MSU should not fall prey to Communist forces... such students should be suspended or they will break Gujarat into pieces," he said at the meeting.

2 FIRs filed after protests at MSU

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
VADODARA, MAY 8

THE VADODARA city police Sunday lodged two separate FIRs in two incidents of protest against the Faculty of Fine Arts at MS University in Vadodara that came under attack Thursday from right-wing groups for displaying "objectionable" paintings that "hurt religious sentiments".

Officials of Sayajigunj police station are complainants in both FIRs. In the first FIR, two people were identified and booked for allegedly assaulting a constable while on duty to disperse the mob. Police constable Bharat Magabhai, who was unarmed at the protest site on May 5, has stated the two accused—Kartik Joshi and Dhruv Parikh—allegedly obstructed him from performing his duty during the mob violence inside the faculty campus.

"Dhruv Parikh and Kartik Joshi charged toward me warning, 'No one can tell us what to do'. They manhandled me and then slapped me two-three times," the constable states.

The two have been booked under IPC sections for voluntarily obstructing a public servant in the discharge of his public functions (186), voluntarily causing hurt (323), voluntarily causing hurt to deter a public servant from his duty (322), and crime committed in presence of abettor (114).

The second FIR is against 31 workers of the Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad (ABVP) who staged a protest outside the MSU head office Saturday and clashed with the police. The incident happened at the campus when ABVP leaders and workers staged a protest outside the head office demanding to meet Vice-Chancellor VK Shrivastav. They clashed with the cops, burst firecrackers and sloganised against the university and the police while trying to break open the gates.

The FIR, filed by an unarmed police sub-inspector AD Khan states the protesters "threatened the police, disobeyed orders and attempted to show their physical strength by indulging in a physical brawl with officials".

The 31 ABVP leaders have been booked under IPC for gathering in an unlawful assembly (143), rioting (147), continuing to join the unlawful assembly, which has been commanded in the manner prescribed by law to disperse (145), voluntarily obstructing public servant in the discharge of his public functions (186), disobedience to order duly promulgated by a public servant (188), indulging in a rash or negligent act so as to endanger human life or the personal safety of others (336).

"We were able to identify the two accused in the FIR of the assault against the constable on Thursday from the videos. We are yet to ascertain which outfit they belong to... We are yet to make formal arrests," said Sayajigunj Police Inspector RG Jadeja.

The fact-finding committee appointed by the university met at the head office Sunday and began recording the statements of the professors. Convener of the committee, CN Murthy, who is also the Dean of the Faculty of Technology, told reporters, "Seven of the nine members of the committee met to hasten the process. We will delve into all aspects while arriving at a conclusion."

Notes:

The details of the Management / Directors of the abovementioned companies, as per the records of the Exchange, are available on the Exchange website www.bseindia.com under the tab "Corporate Information" under 'Management' on the individual company's webpage. In case of any change in the details of the Management / Directors as compared to the details posted on the BSE website, the same should be communicated immediately to the Exchange but not later than 15 working days from the date of this notice, in the manner specified herein below.

All concerned are advised to note that the consequences of compulsory delisting which were mentioned in the said Notice would include the following:-

- These companies would cease to be listed on the stock exchange and would be moved to the Dissemination Board of the Exchange.
- As per SEBI Delisting Regulations, the following consequences of compulsory delisting would apply to the companies not under liquidation / liquidated:

• In terms of Regulation 24 of Delisting Regulations,

- the delisted company, its whole-time directors, its promoters and the companies which are promoted by any of them shall not directly or indirectly access the securities market or seek listing for any equity shares for a period of ten years from the date of such delisting.
- In case of such companies whose fair value is positive –
 - such a company and the depositories shall not effect transfer, by way of sale, pledge, etc., of any of the equity shares held by the promoters / promoter group and the corporate benefits like dividend, rights, bonus shares, split, etc. shall be frozen for all the equity shares held by the promoters/ promoter group, till the promoters of such company provide an exit option to the public shareholders in compliance with sub-regulation (3) of regulation 23, as certified by the concerned recognized stock exchange;
 - the promoters and whole-time directors of the compulsorily delisted company shall also not be eligible to become directors of any listed company till the exit option as stated in clause (a) above is provided.

• As per the provisions of Regulation 23(3) of the SEBI Delisting Regulations,

- The promoter of the company shall acquire delisted equity shares from the public shareholders by paying them the value determined by the valuer within three months of the date of delisting from the recognized stock exchange, subject to their option of retaining their shares. Explanation: For the purposes of sub-regulation (1), -
 - 'valuer' means a chartered accountant within the meaning of clause (b) of section 2 of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 (38 of 1949), who has undergone peer review as specified by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India constituted under that Act, or a merchant banker appointed to determine the value of the delisted equity shares;
 - value of the delisted equity shares shall be determined by the valuer having regard to the factors mentioned in regulation 15.

3. As per directions received from SEBI with regard to companies under liquidation / liquidated:

- For all companies which are 'Under Liquidation / Liquidated' and which are compulsorily delisted, the consequences of compulsory delisting as provided for in Regulation 24(1) of the SEBI Delisting Regulations, 2009 would not apply to the companies / promoters / whole time directors of these companies if the date of the appointment of provisional liquidator or the order of winding up is prior to the date of compulsory delisting.
