Admitted to ICU, AAP's Satyendar Jain gets six-week bail on medical grounds

EXPRESSNEWS SERVICE NEW DELHI, MAY 26

THE SUPREME COURT on Friday granted jailed former Delhi minister Satyendar Jain six weeks interim bail on medical grounds, saying it is "appropriate that a citizen has the right to receive treatment of his choice at his own expense".

Jain on oxygen support. The bench said it had "no reason to doubt" Jain's May 4 health report from the G.B.Pant Institute of Post Graduate Medical Education and Research, New Delhi. The details of the report were not immediately known. "We think it appropriate that the citizen is having a right to take treatment of his choice, at his own expense, in a private hospital. Therefore, we deem it appropriate to release the petitioner on interim bail on medical grounds for a limited period of six weeks," the bench ordered and fixed the matter for hearing next on July 10. The court, however, imposed certain conditions on Jain for the bail period. "The petitioner shall not influence and meet with any of the witnesses (in the ED case), which is scheduled in the witness list...he shall not leave the area of NCR without leave of the trial court...during the interim bail, all the relevant treatment papers and prognosis of such treatment shall be produced before this Court," it said. The bench also asked Jain to "refrain himself from appearing before print or electronic media or any social media platform to give any statement on any issue during the interim bail". Jain has been in Tihar jail since May last year after the Enforcement Directorate arrested on money laundering charges.

His counsel, senior advocate A M Singh told the court on Friday that the former minister was suffering from spinal problems besides muscular atrophy and his weight had dropped by 33 kg. He told the court that he was not touching on the merits of the ED case against Jain but only seeking bail for him on medical grounds. Appearing for the ED, Additional Solicitor General S V Raju opposed the bail to Jain saying he should first be evaluated by a medical team of AIIMS. He told the court he has doubts about the Lok Nayak Hospital, where Jain is admitted, and that there are observations that records could be fudged there.

DMK workers stop I-T team at TN minister's home

ARUN JANARDHANAN CHENNAI, MAY 26

DMK WORKERS stopped an Income-Tax (I-T) team from searching the rented accommodation of Tamil Nadu minister V Senthil Balaji and his brother Ashok in Karur town and damaged their vehicle, as the central agency launched simultaneous searches at around 40 premises linked to the two Friday morning. According to I-T officials, they had to abort searches at a few other places as well due to protests. The searches were carried out at properties in Chennai, Coimbatore and Karur districts. "Around 40 premises linked to Balaji and his brother Ashok are under inspection since morning. The properties mostly belong to Balaji, his brother, and their close allies and friends," said a senior I-T official. Properties of Bangalore, a quarry owner and friend of Ashok and Senthil Karthik, a real estate businessman based in Coimbatore and friend of Balaji, are also under scrutiny, the official said. A four-time MLA since 2006, Balaji holds electricity, prohibition and Excise portfolios. "We are not new to us as similar action was taken during the last phase of the campaigning for the Assembly polls... In most places where the searches were conducted, the individuals are already paying tax; they are not tax evaders," he told reporters.

"If someone has done something wrong, please take action. But it is fair to scale the wall and enter the house," he said, referring to allegations that I-T officials tried to scale the compound wall of his rented accommodation in Karur. Earlier in the day, more than 200 DMK workers, including Karur Mayor Kavitha Ganesan, confronted the I-T officials, demanding that they show their identity cards. Matters escalated when the search team allegedly refused to show the identity cards. The DMK workers damaged the vehicle in which the I-T team arrived, following which police were called to restore order. "We requested the I-T officials to follow basic protocols and ensure necessary safety before they search a sitting minister's residence," said an official at the Karur SP's office. Neither the police nor the CRPF intervened about the searches. They landed up at the minister's brother's house in plainclothes in a taxi and tried to scale the compound wall. Lucky that they were not physically attacked by the angry mob," the official said. Later in the day, the I-T officials filed a complaint with the police. The DMK alleged the BJP was using central agencies such as the I-T to target Opposition parties. DMK organisation secretary R S Bharathi claimed the BJP was targeting the DMK because of the M K Stalin-led government's popularity in Tamil Nadu.
